

July 11, 2011

The CrossGlobe Group is proud to announce the opening of its newest U.S. location in Delray Beach, Florida. This new office represents an expansion of CrossGlobe's logistics and brokerage division and provides our sales force with a strategic hub to better service our customers located in the southeastern United States.

Donna Del Rosso, who recently joined CrossGlobe as its new Vice President of Logistics, heads the new Florida operation. Donna brings over 20 years of experience in the industry and was most recently a senior sales manager at CH Robinson Worldwide.

The Florida office will enable CrossGlobe to better assist its customers by furthering CrossGlobe's reach in providing end-to-end supply chain solutions. The new office will have access to and serve the entire CrossGlobe network with nationwide logistics and multi-modal services.

Bill Franks, President and CEO of CrossGlobe stated, "Along with our newly opened office in Florida, CrossGlobe is actively broadening its current long-standing carrier relationships and continuing its investments in technology and people. These enhancements will enable CrossGlobe to provide excellent service to both our end customers as well our valued partner carriers."

About the CrossGlobe Group

The CrossGlobe Group was founded in 1951 as Lydall, Inc.'s transportation group and is a comprehensive supplier of distribution and transportation services to producers of specialized products that need expert care and handling. CrossGlobe's service offerings include warehousing, truckload hauling, drayage, and customized value-added services in those areas. CrossGlobe is headquartered in Glen Allen, Virginia and operates in Monson, Massachusetts, Newport News, Virginia, Norfolk, Virginia, Portsmouth, Virginia, Pasadena, Texas, Savannah, Georgia, Port of NY/NJ, New Jersey and now Delray Beach, Florida. For more information, please visit us at www.crossglobegroup.com.