CrossGlobe Group Announces Organizational Changes

Bill Franks, President and CEO of the CrossGlobe Group, announced today the following changes and additions to the CrossGlobe team, stating, "With these changes, we are adding valuable skill sets to our company and recognizing two of our current top performers. These additions and promotions will enable us to provide an even higher level of service and add real value for our customers as we continue the successful growth of our business."

Debbie Mills has been promoted to Vice President of Transport. Debbie has been with CrossGlobe since 1991 and for the past five years Debbie has been leading the Logistics and Truckload group. Located in our Corporate Headquarters in Glen Allen, Debbie will now be focused on and responsible for the growth and strategic direction of our asset based transportation group.

Donna Del Rosso has joined CrossGlobe Group as the Vice President of Logistics. In her new role, Donna will be responsible for the growth and strategic direction of all non-asset logistics and brokerage business. Donna brings 20 years of experience in the industry and was most recently a senior sales manager for CH Robinson. Donna received her Bachelor of Arts degree from Rutgers University and earned an MBA from Florida Atlantic University in 2010.

Amy Brown has joined CrossGlobe Distribution as the Director of Operations in the Port of Virginia, with complete responsibility for the warehouse and customer service operations of our three separate locations within the Port of Virginia. Prior to joining CrossGlobe, Amy served as the Director of Strategic Planning and Capture Management for ITA International. Amy is a graduate of Georgia Southern University where she earned a Master's degree in Business Administration and holds a Bachelor's of Business Administration from Stetson University.

Mark Bass, previously CrossGlobe's Assistant Controller, has been promoted to Controller of CrossGlobe Group and will head all day-to-day accounting functions of the company. Mark has twenty-five years of accounting experience in the industry and holds a B.S. in Business with a concentration in accounting from Virginia Tech and an MBA in Business from the University of Richmond.

Finally, we wish to thank all of our valued customers and partners for your support of our business and look forward to providing you with the continued level of superior service that you have come to expect from CrossGlobe.
